

Adelaar

US 4,700 P/day plus expenses

📍 Indonesia    ⚓ Indonesia    ++ 127FT / 38.71M

🛏 4 cabins    👤 8 guests    ⚙ 5 crew

Overview

Embark on an unforgettable diving adventure in Indonesia by booking a cabin space aboard the Adelaar. On board, you will discover luxurious and comfortable interiors perfectly suited to the needs of passionate divers. The experienced crew will be delighted to cater to all your needs, providing personalized service throughout your diving cruise.

Explore dream destinations in Indonesia such as Raja Ampat, Komodo, or the Banda Islands, and discover breathtaking landscapes and exceptional marine biodiversity. Adelaar invites you to experience unique moments in nature, creating unforgettable memories on a diving cruise in Indonesia with friends or family. Book your journey on board the Adelaar now for a relaxing, adventurous, and discovery-filled experience in Indonesia's most beautiful diving destinations.

Specifications

|                            |                                                        |
|----------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|
| Model                      | Dutch Schooner                                         |
| Length                     | 127ft.                                                 |
| Engines                    | one                                                    |
| Engine Make                | Mercedes Marine Diesel                                 |
| Engine Speed Max (kn)      | 7.5                                                    |
| Engine Speed Cruising (kn) | 6.5                                                    |
| Engine Generator           | Generators (25 kVA-65 kVA) for 24 hour electrical powe |
| Cabins                     | 4                                                      |
| Guests                     | 8                                                      |
| Crew                       | 5                                                      |
| Hull Material              | Wooden                                                 |

