Overview

Previously named VvS1, AKIKO was delivered by Alloy Yachts in 2007 and with an extensive refit in 2017, this 34m expedition yacht has 5 staterooms and can sleep 8 guests (10 with children).

Built with aluminium superstructure & hull, comply to MCA and Lloyds Register standards, AKIKO also benefits from her creative exterior designer Gregory Marchall's talent and received five major honours at the 2008 World Superyacht Awards.

AKIKO's interior is filled with warm and cozy colours, as well as contemporary paintings and Pacific-infused wood carvings and artworks. She has zero speed stabilisers to ensure absolute comfort onboard and her abundant water toys make sure that their guests will never be bored.

Lead by Captain Greg Dunn, the professional crew of 5 delivers best services onboard this wonderful charter superyacht, ensuring the guests to have a complete enjoyment of their adventures and superyacht holidays.

AKIKO has been travelling the West Coast of Australia (Coral Coast to the Kimberley) since 2017 and her Owners are passionate about sharing their knowledge of the area.

Think, the new generation of sea-faris.

AKIKO cruises around:

until May 2020: Perth (min. 5 nights)

Jun. – Oct. 2020: The Kimberley (min. 5 nights)
