Overview

This brilliant 67ft (20.42m) Fontaine Pajot sailing catamaran is new to the charter market in 2020 and offers charter guests a spacious, feature-filled platform for exploring the Greek Islands in total luxury.

With the benefit of two hulls, ALOIA boasts impressive deck and interior space. The expansive flybridge comprises seating, bar and lounge area, with a bimini for sun protection. The foredeck has a marvellous social area with sunken seating, sunpads and jacuzzi, plus twin trampolines for guests to recline, relax and experience the pleasures of cruising under sail.

The massive aft cockpit with table and seating is designed for socialising and alfresco dining.

INTERIORS

Fresh, chic and contemporary, ALOIA'S interiors are laid-back luxury. The saloon features an elegant lounge area and dining section, with a bar adjacent, flatscreen TV and large windows for unimpeded views.

The professional Chef's galley is below decks and the onboard Chef will whip up mouth-watering culinary creations for guests during their charter.

ACCOMMODATION

Below decks, ALOIA offers guests four extremely comfortable cabins for up to eight. The master suite is on the starboard side and comprises a king bed, lounge area and generous ensuite. The three queen bed cabins all have private ensuites, windows for sea breezes and views, as well as plenty of storage.

The dedicated professional crew consists of a captain, hostess and Chef, look forward to pampering guests on board and introducing them to the legendary cruising grounds of the Aegean Sea.
