Overview

This yacht has been designed to appeal to the Asian market and answers cultural desires for their yachting lifestyle. Aptly named Lan Kwai Fong, this special edition of the Aquila 48 delivers the energetic nightlife the name depicts. The main entertaining deck includes numerous seating areas, a karaoke machine, sound system and multiple flat screen televisions. A catering galley is located in the port hull, an intimate salon in the starboard hull and two resting cabins occupy the forward areas in the lower deck. The oversized flybridge with evening lighting features, seating and a superb sound system allows the party to continue outside under the stars.

This impressive 48' power catamaran was born to embody prestige, luxury and world-class appointments aligned with trend setting innovation, uncompromised quality and elegant design. The striking power catamaran is one of the most well-appointed yachts in her class to satisfy the most discerning of tastes.

The main deck provides guests with an expansive entertainment level for the most energetic of evenings, or a private oasis for smaller parties. Plush leather furnishings and a state of the art entertainment system including karaoke, numerous flat screens and a brilliant lighting system compliment her elegant lines and interior color palate.
