Overview

Top Five epitomizes luxury and attention to detail throughout. Her aft deck provides shaded comfort for relaxing, an informal meal or simply enjoying the surroundings.

As you enter the main salon, you immediately note her large windows that provide unobstructed views and a bright open feeling ideal for entertaining guests, enjoying an intimate conversation, or watching TV or a movie. The main salon flows with ease into a spacious well appointed dining salon with ample seating for 12, perfect for those wishing to dine in style.

Forward on the main deck, is the master suite, accessed from the main deck foyer, you pass through your private study and into the full-beam stateroom with his and her baths. Her spacious bath features a marble Jacuzzi tub and separate shower. There is a king-sized bed, large walk-in his and hers wardrobes and entertainment center.

On the lower deck, there are five luxurious staterooms. The full beam VIP stateroom features a large bath complete with tub. There are two equal queen-size staterooms; two double staterooms forward are each fitted with a full size and a twin berth as well as a Pullman, making them ideal family cabins. All staterooms have en-suite baths and entertainment centers.

Whether you arrive at the bridge deck via the exquisite curved staircase, or use her 4-deck elevator located off the foyer, the feeling of understated elegance and comfort is the same, complete with large screen entertainment center, a cozy sunken bar and ample seating. Alfresco dining is at its best on the aft bridge deck. This spacious private area accommodates 12 guests.

The sun deck is designed as an entertainers dream, including a spa pool surrounded by sun beds and teak chairs. The shaded settee curves around a cocktail table and the cocktail bar has seating for five. The expansive open space of the sun deck is perfect for an afternoon or evening party.
