Overview

2024 Catana Ocean Class Hull #15

Location: Aberdeen, Hong Kong

Overview:

Designed for true sailors and long-range adventurers, the Catana Ocean Class is a high-performance, bluewater cruising catamaran that combines lightweight carbon-infused construction, powerful sail handling, and luxury living space. Built in France by the legendary Catana Group, this 50-foot catamaran is optimized for speed, safety, and autonomy at sea.

Hull #15 is a rare find, a fully outfitted 3-cabin owner's version, upgraded with electric winches, premium electronics, climate control, lithium batteries, crew cabin, and much more. Built for serious passage-making, this yacht is ready to cruise the world.

Key Features:

Carbon-Infused Performance

Using vacuum-infused composite construction with carbon reinforcements throughout: including bulkheads, stringers, and structural elements, the Ocean Class delivers superior stiffness and reduced weight for exceptional offshore performance.

Smart, Lightweight Power

Equipped with lithium batteries, a 13.5 kVA generator, and Victron 3000W charger/inverter, this vessel is optimized for energy efficiency and off-grid capability.

High-Aspect Sail Plan

Featuring a PRORADIAL Square-top mainsail and Genoa, combined with electric Performa winches and additional Code 0/Gennaker rigging, hull #15 is tuned for speed with minimal crew effort.

Premium Comfort Systems

With full air conditioning in saloon and all cabins, washer/dryer, wine cooler, dishwasher, and electric oven/hob, this is an expedition, high performance catamaran with superyacht-level amenities and comfort.

Layout & Accommodation:

3-Cabin Master Version + Crew Cabin

An ideal layout for private owners, this configuration offers a spacious master suite with en-suite, plus two large guest cabins and a convertible forward berth. Each area is designed with generous storage, premium finishes, and comfort-driven detail. Plus, a dedicated crew cabin with A/C allows for a professional skipper for charter or long range expeditions if required.
